How many current bands try to sound unique and outstanding, especially like the kind of pop music that NEEDLES//PINS are playing? We're talking about awesome snotty power pop laced punk rock from Vancouver / Canada.

NEEDLES//PINS start where White Wires, Gentleman Jesse, Young Governor and others leave off and take their really own incredible song craft at work here – all instantly likable and infinitely memorable. It's unique and outstanding in a serious way! For everyone who loves jams catchy as fuck: NEEDLES//PINS are just what you needed. The "Shamebirds" LP will make the coldest, loneliest and most boring of days fun and crazy again. The songs circle somewhere between mid-period Replacements, Selling the Sizzle-era Smugglers, The Hives' "incredibly famous for a minute" stint and '70s/'80s Canadian power pop punk (Pointed Sticks / Teenage Head) and you'd be close. It's just awesome!
