Our It is the birth of a new amazing Canadian band! It's Eric (FEAR OF LIPSTICK, guitars), Ilisha (g & voc in THALIDOMY KIDS now on drums) and Jesse (dr in THALIDOMY KIDS now on bass). This adroit trio is called FERAL TRASH and "TRASHFICTION" is their bewitched debut full-length, maybe a record made for your future classic list. Listened to it the first time it stuck in my mind for days. The 11 songs take straight Canadian Power-Pop aka STATUES' classic album "New People Make Us Nervous" turn it into melodic BUZZCOCKS-like bombs in the choruses and grasp at the spirit of the WIPERS energetic '77 smashers! The relentless beats, the devil-may-care hooks and the melancholic female/male vocals combined with catchy garage-punk songwriting sends endless waves of shiver down my spine. Supported by proper production akin to RIVER CITY TANLINES' "I'm Your Negative" mixed with SEDATIVES minus keys or even FEAR OF LIPSTICK it is an all-killer-no-filler from the opener "Seventeen" until the last tune "Where We Go" and again I find myself singing along: "...P.A.R.A.N.O.I.D..." - extraordinary haunting stuff!

It was recorded by James "You can do it better" O'Toole at the Echo Chamber and mastered by Dave "V's look cooler than U's" Williams at Eight Floors Above.

Artwork is being done by Michael George Haddad.

Co-released by P.Trash (Europe), Dirt Cult records (US) and Mammoth Cave Recording Co. (Canada) plus a limited "P.Trash Club" Edition with deluxe silk-screened covers, Mike from MOTHER'S CHILDREN, VOICEMAIL, YEAR ZERO did the artwork, silver ink on a black paper.
