Forget all those bands who think to high of themselves, and play a record by a buncha kids havin' a blast playing the sound they love!

That's right, get ready for round three of the MARINELLIS' take on the garage sound. Safe to say that if you dug their previous efforts, you'll rank this record pretty high on your 'top garage records' list! And I'm not just sayin' that 'cuz I want you to buy this record. Just listen to a few of the tunes and try to come back to me telling me those are not some of the finest garage pop tunes you've ever heard... Yeah I didn't think so.

Anyway, this time, the band totally left behind their JACQUES DUTRONC influences and other pastiche from the past to give us 10 fresh and exciting psychedelic garage-pop gems, intertwined with a hint of western twang and choke-full of catchy melodies. So put that sucker on and experience the full spectrum of the MARINELLIS' talent from the lysergic 'L'Indienne' to the upbeat 'On Dit'. By the way here is no place for certain band recommendations anymore. Now LES MARINELLIS is the reference! - Christophe Lopez-Huici / Bananas Zine
