You won't catch no sleep with this record. It's the sound blaring from your car stereo when you hit the city for a wild night out, all revved up and ready to shake some action. A record smelling of sleazy bars, too much booze and cigarettes, lipstick stains and broken hearts.

Toronto City Sweethearts Curtis Dixon of VICIOUS CYCLE and Vassil of the MARVELOUS DARLINGS and ex-HEARTATTACKS keep you awake with the fast and rolling rockers "Wrong directions" and "Hot ten". They make you bring out the air guitar and shout along to the sticky chorus of "Guys with guitars", buy you a drink in the howling blues "Just one night", make you go hip-shaking crazy in the lascivious NEW YORK DOLLS/JOHNNY THUNDERS styled "Trouble tonight", "New girl in town", "Little rocker" and the perfect "Cry all night" and let the monkey on your back dance the cha-cha with the wilder stomper "War in my head".

All perfectly fixed up by Mr. Ben Cook in a dry and sleaze-o-ponic 70-sound that make you LOVER! and CHEAP TIME fans out there forget the modern world around!
