The Paris Punk Commune already Kill Kill Killed us with their superb entrée LP in 2008 and are now ready to dish up another main course tres tres formidable that will be instantly decorated with the maximum of 5 Trashelin stars. Spinning fast and relentlessly stirring the sauce, the boys only slow down a little on "Blind" and "Before the storm", which is refined with some melodic UK Mod-Punk and smacks of the young Jello Biafra singing. Tender WIPERS finish opens the oeuvre with "29", followed by some fast, ratty and steady Punkrocking in "Last call", "Broken", "Self destruction", "Hostile sex" and "Poor life" and even salted with some dark synthie rafinesse in "Slow down". If your pleasure is to dine on the early US Punk of the ADOLESCENTS and DEAD KENNEDYS, the fast and melodic Canada Punk of STATUES and alike, plus you enjoy those unforgettable moments de JAY REATARD.

Then the hog for this record is you! And don't forget: If it ain't broken - FIX IT!
