Holding all the aces of 60's garage rock the 2nd blast of FUZZZZZZ from Bruxelles' WARM TOY MACHINE is ready to ship. According to the proverb "Never change a winning team" recordings & mastering done by Lo' Spider at Swampland. In comparison to its predecessor the sound is not that direct in-your-face style - the new recordings are more like a premium wine or whiskey. Every single ingredient is the same as it used to, but now the flavor is definitely barrel aged, specialized for FUZZZZZZ-Connoisseurs. So if you wanna be rapt away by some DEMON'S CLAWS of fuzzy psych-hell-sound and find your self GET LOST! in a '68 COMEBACK after the BLUES XPLOSION within a rollin' & stomping crowd together with THE MUMMIES, J.C. SATAN and JACK OF HEART - you're doin' it right here. Rumors say that even Lemmy K. can't refuse to tap his boots to these tunes as long as booze is pouring down. An extra 'Cheers!' goes to FREDDY D'HOE for the splendid cover picture. -
