Survivors of the zombie bash-fest!! Alrighty! Nearly one year older and you still wanna pogo the flesh off your bones!? Then better do not turn down the volume, cause Canada's shrewd observers of the apocalypse are right back with a new slashing full-length banger. Once again a sturdy little bastard of punk that stuck in your head with the first stab. The second outfit of THE DAGGER EYES is looking through grim-reaper's masks and wants you to join the bone-jarring party from the crypt immediately. No problem for those who are already familiar to THE DAGGER EYES. It only takes a short noisy intro and "swoosh!" it feels like home. These twelve new tracks own the same propulsive force as the zombie-killing debut while the guitar and voice sound a shade darker here. In some songs ("New Wave" or "The Rats") the sound effects are building tiny little melodies for creepy cold wave mood which perfectly blend in THE DAGGER EYES bon ton. The songs were recorded at Yogi's Meatlocker & the House of Targ, pressed on black wax and fixed in black & white/silver super cool artwork created by Bree Crosby. Keep it simple! Keep it punk!
