LOVER! Mastermind Rich Crooks` Solo debut EP 7" under his own name "RICH CROOK"! 4 songs, 4 hits... starts with "Tonight Alright", a rolling pop tune flourished the hippie sound to a modern haunting melody that you will never forget until summer comes to partying with your flower girl in a car on a dark road with a banshee in the back seat... "Tinker Toy" has this essential listening moody guitar style but still with a positive feeling at the end, that only can be represented by Rich. "Black Eyed Kid" a bit more 60ties inspired song with a great added organ and an amazing but not to flashy Fuzz Guitar! The EP ends with the slower cover "I'm Going Home" by Pittsburgh's THE SWAMP RATS, makes you dream to get a complete full length by RICH CROOKs flower-garage-punk sound soon.. But what ever it is...is done the unmistakable LOVER! / RICH CROOK Style!
Artworks drawn by our pal Bernd / Corporate Rock Knockout Zine.
