The Pit's probably is one of the most legendary punk bars in Europe. This tiny, dirty corner bar in squaresville Kortrijk, Belgium literally has had thousands of bands performing on the tiny stage in front of an often crazy audience. Most of what's worthwhile in underground R'n'R and has toured Europe has been there. From the New Bomb Turks, Huevos Rancheros, Antiseen, Stitches, Mummies, Supercharger, Killdozer, Rancid, Devil Dogs, Rip Offs, Spits, Hex Dispensers, Cocknoose, Jack Oblivian, D.O.A., Supersnazz, Shorty, Pachinko, Beavers, Groovie Ghoulies, Drags, US Bombs, Speedball Baby, Dead Moon,... to the Gee Strings, Magnetix, Nazi Death Camp, Cellophane Suckers, Jet Bumpers, Apers, Flying Over, White Fangs, Anna & The Psychomen, Gasolheads,... you name it and they've been there.

Well, the shitty Pit's just turned 25 and that calls for a fitting celebration. Early December there were four days of madness with the Mentalettes, Black Needles, Magnetix, Jesus Disease (legendary Kortrijk early 90's punk band doing their first AND last reunion show EVER for the occasion), the KIDS (Belgium's first and best punk band in the best punk bar of the country).

Four house favorites delivered a brand new, previously unreleased track that got mastered by Tim Warren of Crypt Records

And it ain't over yet, cuz you don't only get a great record, the package also includes the latest issue of HIGH HEELS SLUT zine. This issue 13 features interviews with all bands on the 7", teenage kicks galore at The Pit's and the usual crap you can expect from this zine. ONLY available as your coolest package deal!!
