Label: P.Trash Records
Katalog-Nr.: Short-Circuit Trash 01
Artist: STRANGE ATTRACTOR /
RED MASS
Titel: Split
Format: 10"
Files Under: Garage Punk/ Indie Punk

A record that has more colors than a Disney movie on LSD and is crazier than the whole Muppet Show running out of Ritalin. Yes, Ladies and Gents, it's the P. Trash premiere of the nice and handy 10inch format with a bunch of manic and fabulous tunes on either side.

Starting with STRANGE ATTRACTOR (spinning on 45 rpm) you get some short and snotty blasts of melodic Punk songs by Jeff, drummer of the STATUES. He makes more noise with his warehouse guitar than an entire Bluespunk orchestra and recorded this tasty collection in his basement all by himself with a little help from Ian of the SEDATIVES on Vox organ. His version of Germany's first Punk band BIG BALLS AND THE GREAT WHITE IDIOT "Kick her in the dirt" will kick you in the balls, no matter how big or dirty!

More sonic madness awaits with RED MASS on the 33 rpm side. It's Choyce from CPC GANGBANGS and LES SEXAREENOS beating this meat and his cheap guitar in "Stains", doing a handclapping good job in a run-down version of NERVOUS EATERS' "You've heard this chords before" before closing with the bebopping "Charlie Brown", bringing out the Muppets again.
