Money was handed over and our man is back in the subterranean P. Trash HQ with uranium in sufficient concentration to maintain a sustained nuclear Punkrock chain reaction. The catchy isotopes in the 8 songs will generate the heat in every Power-Pop reactor.

URANIUM COMEBACK from Ottawa/Canada was elaborated by scientifico numero uno STEVE ADAMYK and members of the MOTHER'S CHILDREN, SEDATIVES and WHITE WIRES laboratories exclusively. The fissile material is comprised of a good dose of the faster and poppy STEVE ADAMYK BAND sound "Out of time", "Walking", "Wanted to tell", accumulated with killer WIPERS guitar lines "Dance the ground", DEVO-ish staccato beat "Minds" and a grittier '77 Punk edge on "Frightening" and "Burning eyes". Together with a version of the POINTED STICKS' "What do you want me to do", this is highly stereoactive material with an endless half-life, fortunately fallen into the right hands of P. Trash.
